

A BRIEF HISTORY OF...

The Windsor Police Pipe Band

Year 1967

Band Formation

The band is officially founded and adopts the Red Gordon tartan in honour of then Police Chief, Gordon Preston

Local Legends

The WPPB become a staple at parades, charity fundraisers and grand events on both sides of the Windsor-Detroit border

70's - 90's

Year 2000

The Merger

The Ballinedan Pipe Band merge with The WPPB in August of 2000 attracting many new players to form 2 competition focused bands under the WPPB banner (Gr. 4 and Gr. 2)

Success Story

Growing to field a band in every grade, the WPPB organization boasts 100+ members and dozens of championship wins throughout North America. As well as several top placings at the Gr.2 World Championships in Scotland

Early 2000's

Today

Continuing On

Although smaller in size now, our strive for musical excellence is unchanged. As with many groups, the Covid pandemic has been tough to recover from, but the WPPB is determined to show that the Scottish arts can thrive in our community again
